

KADANT JOHNSON

General Scholarships:

Kadant Johnson offers up to two $2,000 scholarships to eligible TRHS graduates preparing to attend an accredited college or university to pursue one of the following professions:

- Engineering
- Business/Finance
- Teaching
- Law
- Dentistry
- Medical Field
- Science
- Nursing

--Scholarships are renewable for a second year if candidate maintains a GPA of 3.00 or higher.

--Must provide statement explaining reason for wanting to attend college and reason for applying for this scholarship.

--Must include Official Transcript, ACT and/or SAT test scores, and a copy of the resume candidate prepared for the TRHS exit interview.

--Applications available in the TRHS Guidance Office. Deadline is March 22.

Mechanical Engineering Co-op and Scholarship Program:

Kadant Johnson offers one $2,000 scholarship every one to two years to an eligible TRHS graduate preparing to attend an accredited college or university and enroll in a full-time Mechanical Engineering program.

--Program includes an offer of employment at Kadant Johnson during summer breaks over the course of the four-year Mechanical Engineering program, working in areas of increasing responsibilities.

--Scholarship is renewable for a total of four years if candidate maintains a GPA of 3.00 or higher and participates in the Kadant Johnson Engineering Co-op program.

--Must provide statement explaining reason for wanting to attend college and reason for applying for this scholarship.

--Must include Official Transcript, ACT and/or SAT test scores, and a copy of the resume candidate prepared for the TRHS exit interview.

--Applications available in the TRHS Guidance Office. Deadline is March 22.